

Climate Conversations – Project Outline

Climate Conversations invites Northern Rivers artists to collaborate with community and explore ways we can adapt, reorganise, and evolve in the face of climate change through the arts.

The successful applicant will receive an artist's fee of $5,000 to develop new work, and a one-month, Council supported, exhibition at Lone Goat Gallery, Byron Bay, in 2025.

This year's theme for the second Climate Conversations is Rising which explores the growing consciousness and urgency to meet climate challenges. Amidst soaring temperatures, swelling oceans, and escalating natural disasters, Earth's fragile equilibrium hangs in the balance. Rising reflects the need to embrace our role as environmental stewards, and unite in collective action.

Artists are invited to respond to the theme of Rising and propose a collaborative project and exhibition.

It is expected that the artist/s will develop and deliver at least two public programs to engage the community and these may include, among other things: artist talks, workshops, discussions, field trips, outdoor activations, community clean ups or depending on the nature of the artist's project. Additional funding of up to $2,000 will be provided for the programs.
